翟瑞恒 Chak Shui Hang

資深會員 Fellow Member

Chak Shui Hang started off as a labour administrator with comprehensive training on Hong Kong's labour regulatory regime and has then acquired extensive experience in HR management focusing on industrial/staff relations/engagement, employment investigation, HRBP, talent management, issue management, among others. Having held executive positions in Disney and various sizeable public organisations, Chak has benefited from the cross-sectoral experience that facilitates productive connections between HR and other disciplines and society. As a Fellow Member since 2015, Chak has served in the HKIHRM's Exco and various committees and facilitated members' professional growth with thematic training.
