Her 35 years' experience in serving the Institute

She joined the Institute in 1991 as an ordinary member, soon she was nominated as a member of the Social Committee, organising social activities for members. Through this role, she had the opportunity to meet a lot of people from different industry and expand her horizon.

Due to her active participation in various Institute activities, she has held various key roles of the Institute, including member of the Management Committee, Council member, Honorary Treasurer and Chairman of the Annual Conference. These 35 years of experience really gave her a very good opportunity not only for network but got to see the development of Human Resources function in Hong Kong. She looks forward to seeing more Human Resources partitioners actively involved in the Institute's work in the future development of the Human Resources function.
